21 V 2

THIS Catalogue of Books is so good in its Kind, so desirable in all its Parts, that it needs not the Patronage, or Name of some Learned Person's Library to recommend it. So that I cannot reasonably doubt of its favourable reception here, amongst so many knowing and competent Judges of the various Editions of the most useful Books of all sorts; for which Reason I shall forbear a particular Character of the many Books of Value and Scarcity that present themselves in the Theological and Philological parts of the Latin Catalogue, and content my self in the general to intimate, That the English consists also of a great number of choice Books in Divinity, Husbandry, Philosophy, Poetry, but especially History: All which considered, may render them acceptable to the Curious and Intelligent.

This Auction will begin on ~~Thursday~~ the 8th day of September, at the Auction-Booth in Sturbridg-Fair, from the Hours of Eight in the Morning to Eleven, and from One in the Afternoon to Five in the Evening; and there continue daily till all the Books are sold.

Conditions of Sale

- I. That he who bids most, is the Buyer; and if any Difference arise, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book, or Books, shall be forthwith exposed to Sale again.
- II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwise expressed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.
- III. That the fourth part of the price of the Book or Books bought, be paid by the Buyer at the time of Sale; and that he give us his Name and Degree, and of what Colledg or Hall he belongeth to (if a Scholar) and that the remainder of the Mony be paid within two days at the place of Sale, where the Book or Books shall be ready to be delivered.
- IV. That all Gentlemen, &c. that occasionally are at the Fair, do pay for the Book or Books they buy immediately, or leave such a proportion of Mony in part, for the Book or Books so bought, as shall be demanded by the Undertaker.
